

Trainer

Dr. Dieta Kuchenbrandt
schainundkuchenbrandt,
Leipzig & Düsseldorf

Dr. Dieta Kuchenbrandt is an academically trained psychologist with additional coaching and consulting training (German Psychologists Academy). After several years as a postdoctoral researcher at Bielefeld University and as an interim professor at Osnabrück University, she is a trainer and consultant, specialized in the demands of scientists. Her work focuses on academic career planning and applications for professorships.

First Audition - Applying for Professorships

 Objective

To inform you in detail about the most important phases of the appointment procedure for professorships in Germany (W1 to W3) and to provide you with concrete advice and tips for your applications

 Description

This online seminar first deals with the procedure and formal aspects of the appointment process.

Subsequently, all central application documents (especially CV, cover letter, concepts) are discussed in detail and partly illustrated with sample materials.

The third part of the course addresses expectations and requirements in the hearing of the appointment committee as well as important preparation steps. You will receive tips and brief demonstrations on how to structure your scientific presentation and teaching demonstration. In addition, the most frequently asked questions and topics in the committee interview are outlined.

 Methodology

- Interactive input and short demonstrations
- Work on sample materials
- Written exercises
- Short presentations by the participants & feedback
- Exercise with sample interview questions

 Conditions

The seminar is designed for participants with little or no experience with appointment procedures. Of course, more experienced participants are also welcome.

Organizational Information

Language / Fromat	English / Online
Target group	Postdocs (R2/R3) from all faculties
Date	Tuesday-Wednesday, 3-4 November 2026, 9:00 – 17:00
Registration	For registration click here